Tour of Naval Surface Warfare Center, Carderock
Wednesday, August 27, 2014 @ 2 pm

Overview
Naval Surface Warfare Center, Carderock Division is the principal Navy resource, national focal point and international leader in surface and undersea vehicle science, ship systems and related maritime technology.

Requirements
- ALL visitors MUST be US citizen for this tour.
- The tour is limited to 40 attendees with prior approval ONLY.
- The tour is only available to participants in the workshop.
- To request registration, you must email Peter Bi and provide your full name and organization no later than Aug 12.

Highlights
- Welcome from the Sea-based Aviation Branch
- Multiple purpose subsonic wind tunnel
- Tow basin
- Rotating arm
- Water tunnel

Timing
The Transformative Vertical Flight Workshop is expected to end at noon. Participants are expected to arrange for lunch and transportation on their own. The tour will begin at approximately 2:00 and last approximately two hours.