THE SOCIETY OF EXPERIMENTAL TEST PILOTS

30TH EAST COAST SYMPOSIUM
11 APRIL 2014

BRIEFING MEMO

The Society of Experimental Test Pilots is pleased to announce the 30th East Coast Symposium, to be held on 11 April 2014 near Naval Air Station Patuxent River, Maryland. The Symposium is being held in conjunction with several professional and social events from 9 to 13 April. This year’s Symposium Chairman is Brian Sandberg (M).

All sessions and lunch will be held at the Bay District Volunteer Fire Department Company 3 Social Hall, located at 46900 South Shangri-la Drive, Lexington Park, Maryland 20653. There is no fee to attend thanks to our corporate sponsors, but space is limited and pre-registration is required. SETP President Kevin Prosser (AF) will present the State of the Society during lunch for $20. Please use the attached form or www.SETP.org to register for the symposium. The dress code is business casual or uniform of the day. The winning paper will be announced and SETP Leroy Grumman Award presented at a reception to follow at the Flight Deck Lounge on NAS Patuxent River. To coordinate base access, please contact James Gibson (M) gibson-jim@suddenlink.net (252) 349-5299.

The Symposium coincides with the US Naval Test Pilot School Reunion. The USNTPS Alumni Association, Greater Southern Maryland Chapter of the US Naval Academy Alumni Association, and individual members have planned several professional and social activities from Wednesday, 9 April through Sunday, 13 April. All SETP symposium attendees are cordially invited to attend each event. Additionally, the week is a “fly in” for military or civil aircraft; contact Brian Sandberg at sandbag23@hotmail.com (619)392-5911 for PPR or FBO coordination.

Wednesday: 1130-1300 US Naval Academy Alumni Association, Greater Southern Maryland Chapter Leadership Luncheon. The speaker is Tom Burbage (M). Details and registration at www.navyalumni.org.
