About our speaker:

Test Flying Tales:

Stories from the Test Pilot’s Office

Nick Lappos

Senior Technical Fellow-Advanced Technologies

Former Sikorsky Chief R&D Test Pilot

A sometimes humorous discussion of how it was back then, as told by the pioneers who lived the stories. The stories span the age of the flying boats, earliest helicopters, and Black Hawk and S-76 development.
About our Sponsor:
Sikorsky Global Helicopters, Inc

For civil and government operators, versatility and efficiency are a must when it comes to aircraft. This is why Sikorsky Global Helicopters provides a range of services that aim to meet any need. Our diverse portfolio of proven flight solutions ensures that our customers benefit from a high performance solution – no matter the mission.

Also within Sikorsky Global helicopters is our charter operator and fractional ownership management company, Associated Aircraft Group (AAG).

Light Helicopters

With their exceptional visibility, crew comfort and ease of maintenance, the affordable S-300C™, S-300CBi™, S-333™, and S-434™ helicopters are ideal for commercial and military training, aerial law enforcement, and other applications all around the world.

S-92® Helicopters

Twin-turbine, large cabin civil helicopter ideal for offshore oil transport, search and rescue, and VIP transport missions.

H-92™ Helicopters

As the military derivative of the S-92® helicopter, the H-92™ is the ideal medium utility aircraft for maritime, troop transport, combat search and rescue, and head of state missions.

S-76® Helicopters

With more than 5.4 million fleet flight hours and more than 750 aircraft delivered throughout the world, the S-76 helicopter’s proven airframe guarantees longevity and value. The S-76C++™ and S-76D™ helicopters fuse a time-tested design with the newest technologies to ensure successful multi-mission capabilities for our customers in the future.
