

American Helicopter Society Southwest Chapter presents...

Jim Swartz

President and CEO of CareFlite

CareFlite, Technical Challenges of Helicopter Medical Transport 1979-2014

October 16, 2014

James C. Swartz has served as President and CEO of CareFlite since July 5, 2005. CareFlite is America's oldest joint use air medical program. It operates helicopters, fixed wing, ground ambulances, wheel chair vans and uses its bicycle and mounted teams for large, public events. For the seven years prior to his appointment at CareFlite, he served as President and CEO of a fixed wing air ambulance company. Mr. Swartz holds an Airline Transport Pilot's certificate and is rated in both fixed wing and rotary wing aircraft with over 5000 hours of flight experience. He obtained his helicopter training at the United States Army Aviation Center, Fort Rucker, Alabama. Mr. Swartz holds B.A. and A.A. degrees from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. and a J.D. from the University of Maryland.
